

POSITION DESCRIPTION
Paralegal -Workers' Compensation

January 2023

- I. OVERVIEW OF POSITION. The Workers' Compensation Paralegal ("WC Paralegal"), a member of the Workers' Compensation team, is a key position responsible for providing administrative and legal support to the Firm's Workers' Compensation attorneys. The WC Paralegal will be responsible for a variety of tasks, including but not limited to, organizing and analyzing documents and case work, drafting pleadings and other court documents, filing court documents, scheduling events, actively contributing in all phases of the discovery process and preparing exhibits and documents for court hearings, depositions, and trials. The WC Paralegal must be extremely organized and detail oriented, and able to multi-task in order to effectively work in the Firm's high-speed, deadline driven environment.
- II. REPORTING STRUCTURE. The WC Paralegal works closely with the Workers' Compensation team and supervising attorneys. However, an individual in this position will report directly to the Operations Manager of the Firm.
- III. HOURS AND STATUS. The WC Paralegal position is a full-time position generally working approximately forty (40) hours per week. However, some additional hours may be needed to meet Firm operational needs.
- IV. ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS. The WC Paralegal is responsible for the following essential duties:
- Maintain client files with continual updating and filing copies of documents (electronic/paper files) created within the office or received from outside parties, including but not limited to, employment records, claim file records, medical bills, and a large number of medical records that will also need to be sorted, reviewed, maintained, and updated on a continual basis.
  - Properly request documents to further support our clients' claims and ongoing follow-up to keep clients' files as up to date as possible.
  - Preparation of discovery requests and responses, and other pleadings, as well as filing/eFiling such pleadings with the courts and/or serving the same on the appropriate case-related parties.
  - Schedule events, including but not limited to, hearings, depositions, medical evaluations, medicolegal attorney conferences, client meetings, court reporters and interpreters.
  - Preparation of exhibits, exhibit and witness lists for trials/hearings, pre-trial conference memos, mediation materials, and settlement documents.
  - Provide substantive administrative support to attorneys to enhance office efficiency and effectiveness.
  - Assist with maintaining an accurate calendar for the assigned attorneys by docketing deadlines in ProLaw and calendaring the same with additional details in Outlook.
  - Accurately track billable and non-billable hours and log accurate billing descriptions on a daily basis so that our in-house Business Office can create monthly client invoices.
  - Communicate clearly and effectively and work professionally with all attorneys and Legal Assistants assigned to the team.

- Consistently produce high level work that is accurate and meets or exceeds Firm standards.
- Regular and reliable attendance.

While the Firm provides this job description in an effort to define the essential functions and responsibilities of the WC Paralegal, this description is a summary representative of the duties and responsibilities required of this position and may not include non-essential duties. Duties or responsibilities may be added or modified at the discretion of the Office Manager in accordance with the business needs of the Firm. An individual in this position may be asked to perform duties assigned to others if coverage is necessary.
