BAYLOR EVNEN
WOLFE & TANNEHILL, LLP

TODD D. TURNER

Todd is a part-time attorney on our estate planning and business teams. He assists clients with estate planning through creating Wills and Trusts adapted to specific needs, including the use of business entities to reduce potential estate taxes. Todd also provides probate and trust administration services, including the preparation of a federal estate tax return when appropriate. Representative clients are primarily individuals and small businesses.

Todd has substantial tax experience, having worked for the IRS as a Revenue Agent for nine years, as well as obtaining a bachelor's and master's degree in Accounting. He has obtained a Certificate as a CPA but does not actively practice accounting. He has more than 25 years' experience as an attorney.

Outside of work, Todd has been active in the performing arts, participating in handbell and vocal choirs, and in all aspects of theatrical productions. He also has been active in his church, and has served on several boards and committees, as well as the board for the local community theater and community day care center. The highlight of his performance history is being part of a nationwide choir that performed Brahms' "Requiem" in German at Carnegie Hall on Memorial Day, 2013.
